NEWS OF THE BALL FIELD, RACE TRACK AND PRIZE RING.

Washington Regains the Lead, While Baltimore Drops to Second Place-How the Clubs Stand - On the

Tennis Courts-General Notes, The Washington team recovered its lost ground yesterday and by defeating the Hartford Club managed to retain its lead on first place. At the same time New Haven was treating the Baltimores to the same kind of ball playing that made it so interesting for us on the occasion of our recent visit, and Barnie's opportunity for leading the

The local club played in something like its old form, for it made only a few hits, but these, together with good sacrifice hitting and base running and the errors of its opponents, enabled it

Association, at least for this week, was to pile up the majority of the runs.

Phillips pitched a splendid game and was particularly effective when men were on the bases. He received excellent support in the field, Gleason's work at short being brilliant.

Only a small crowd witnessed the game, owing to threatening weather. The local team bunched its hits in the fifth inning, making three of its four hits, and assisted by two bases on balls and three errors, made five runs.
Thereafter neither side was able to score, and the game ended 8 to 6. Mahoney's umpiring was condemned and he had to ask the protection of the police to preserve order.

The Work of the Week, The local club has finished its first week away from home and the result has been somewhat of a surprise to those who expected to see the club win a larger proportion of its games than it has. Five games have been played thus far, and of these the club lost three one to the Newarks and two to New Haven. To offset these defeats it won one each from New Haven and Hartford. To day the club plays in Jersey City, and it is probable it will win again, thus splitting even on the week, with three victories and three defeats.

Altogether the record made by the club during the week has not been so bad when the crippled condition of the team is taken into consideration, and the only wonder is that it did not lose Next week five games are scheduled two with Jersey City and three with Worcester. Monday and Thursday are vacant days, and it is probable that games will be advanced from later in

While the home team has been play ing badly during the week, two of the other clubs have been putting up an ex-cellent quality of ball, and are now nearly neck and neck with the leaders. Baitimore managed to close the gap between it and the Washingtons during the week, and for one day was tied for first honors. By losing yesterday it dropped into second place, although there is only the difference of a game in the number lost and won. New Haven also pulled up remarkably well, and is now only two games in games won be-hind the leaders and one in games lost. Should Baltimore lose to New Haven to-day the latter will step into second The three clubs are so close to place. The three clubs are so close together that the playing of one day's game may be sufficient to change the positions of the leaders. The race is getting close and exciting, and, if it can be maintained to the close of the season, the clubs will prosper financially. There is but little interest in a race where one club outclasses the others and has a walkover for the pennant. At most it looked as if this were Washington's position, but the events Washington's position, but the events of the past week have demonstrated that there are other teams in the Asso ciation equally as strong, and that, to win the pennant, the Washingtons will have to do the liveliest kind of hustling throughout the remainder of the season. Yesterday Pitcher McCoy was given his release by the home management. He did not come up to expectations and the club could not afford to carry him until later in the season, in the hope that he would improve. Young Under-wood will take his place and will probably be given a trial to-day. Sullivan also has his eye on several other men whom he will secure if they are needed, but at present he wants to get along with the men he has, as he believes changes of any kind are detrimental to the interests of the club. The Pettit Case.

Just before time to call the game at New Haven yesterday afternoon President Braden telegraphed Manager Burn-ham instructing him not to play Pettit. In the morning Mr. Braden had tele-graphed that President Young had asked for the evidence in writing which the New Haven Club wished to present in reference to the case. On top of that came a dispatch from President Young saying that the evidence presented by laven had been carefully consider d. and that the decision would Manager Burnham was very indignant at the turn affairs had taken, but was obliged to abide by the in-structions of Mr. Braden. He attributes the action of the board to the influence of Secretary Phelps, and thinks that the American Association president has overstepped his authority as an of the board of arbitration. The Pettit case will not be given up by any means, and the New Haven Club will insist upon the new consideration which it as asked for Manager Barnie sald on the subject: "The Pettit decision is the greatest piece of injustice I ever saw in baseball, and I think the whole cause of it is that Baltimore jumped the American Asso-ciation. Ever since I joined the Atlantic Association the American Associa-tion has been trying to kill Baltimore and our league. I don't think the National League members of the board had anything to do with the decision except to agree to the decision of the American Association members."

This is all folderol, and the Association may as well accept the result and pay the required fee for admission to the qualified articles of the national agreement. It has nothing to gain by fighting over a player and everything to lose. Naturally the New Haven people are sore over the matter, but they cannot consistently ask the Association to stand by them and risk the destruction of the Association because they are a little put out by being de-

Whether the transfer will ul-timately be made final is not yet known. President Day was asked whether there was any truth in the reports that the New York games in the West with the Clevelands and Pittsburgs would b transferred to Indianapolis at the solf-citation of Mr. Brush, Mr. Day said:

The only games that may be changed of Indianapolis are those scheduled with the Clevelands during the racing week in the latter city in August. No others will be changed."

Brotherhood Troubles, What a nice state of discipline exists What a nice state of discipline exists in the Players' League when a player can force the president of the club, who presumably is putting up part of the money to run it, to resign? And yet that is just what Fogarty has accomplished in the Philadelphia Club, and President Love has been given the alternative of resigning or being kloked out by his brother stockholders. If an organization can be run on those lines very long it will be a wonder. Fogarty's case is only the first of many other similar ones though, and to such causes, if lar ones though, and to such causes, if there were no others, will the downfall of the Brotherhood be accomplished. How the Clubs Stand. Won. Lost. Per cent

The Tennis Tournament.

The third day of the Tennis Tournament was marked by unusually fine playing. The doubles have now sifted down to McCawley and Woodward and Tobin and Metcalf. The singles, as was generally expected, rests between McCawley and Davidson. McCawley is playing a very strong game, as is seen by his scores with Byrnes—6-1, 6-2—but it is feared that Davidson's "Lawford" drive will prove too much for his ford" drive will prove too much for his graceful playing opponent. There is hardly any doubt but that McCawley and Woodward will win the doubles to-

Miss Bartlett defeated Miss Bacon 6-1, 6-2. The finals played between Miss Simons and Miss Bartlett were won by the latter with much difficulty, all the games being closely contested: 6-1, 6-1, 6-4. Miss Simons is a graceful little player, and, considering the fact that she has not considering the fact that she has not played two seasons, handles her racquet remarkably well and places the ball with much judgment. With the advent of the Dominick With the advent of the Dominick McCaffrey show next week there is likely to be a revival of interest in sports pugilistic in this city. There has been a great deal of talk of matching McCaffrey against Jimmy Ryan, the Pennsylvania fighter, and money has been posted on both sides. Whether the men will get together or not is a question. It does not seem probable that Mac will sacrifice his show business to engage in prize-fighting, and there are other considerations of which the general public is not aware that will operate to prevent the fight. It is generally believed that McCaffrey's bout with Corbett some weeks ago closed with Corbett some weeks ago closed his career as a fighter. An old sporting man, who has had considerable expein the ring, said he thou McCaffrey's wind was gone, and in that event he would never be able fight again. So it will be seen that the chances for a match are decidedly

It was erroneously stated in a morning paper yesterday that Billy Dacey and Charley Norton had been matched for a finish fight for $1,000, to take place near this city. The facts of the matter are these: The merits of the men were being discussed in a convivial party, and a proposition to match them was eagerly accepted. A hundred dollars on each side was posted, but, when the consent of the principals was sought, it could not be obtained, and vesterday the money was drawn

Indigestion

IS not only a distressing complaint, of I itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway

from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.:—

"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced woncerful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsapahas produced woncerful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions. I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."
